Forensic Leaders Training Center is committed to ethical business practices

This week, the Forensic Leaders Training Center (FLTC) announced its recent accreditation by Better Business Bureau Serving the Pacific Southwest (BBB). As a BBB Accredited Business, FLTC is dedicated to promoting trust in the marketplace and upholding high standards for honest business behavior.

Now more than ever, customers want to trust companies they do business with, and BBB is committed to building that trust. BBB Accreditation is an honor, and not every business qualifies. The dedication FLTC has displayed to earn this accreditation shows the high level of commitment they have for not only their customers but for the community in which they operate.

"We are pleased to join a community of businesses committed to doing things the right way," said Stephen Lu, Executive Chairman of FLTC. "We value building trust with our customers, and our BBB Accreditation is a public display of our commitment to excellence and maintaining high ethical standards."

BBB Accredited Businesses adhere to BBB's Standards for Trust, a comprehensive set of policies, procedures, and best practices representing trustworthiness in the marketplace. The standards call for building trust, embodying integrity, advertising honestly, telling the truth, being transparent, honoring promises, being responsive, and safeguarding privacy.
